PASABON WIKÈNT

What we noticed this week

SO WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK ?

LIKE EVERY YEAR NEW VENUES RUSH TO OPEN BEFORE THE HOLIDAYS in the last few months we've seen the opening of a diverse selection of places to get your foodfix.

- Chez Susenne recently opened in Eden Mall, serving the real local (Krioyo) food, allowing non-locals to graduate beyond the occasional Stoba.
- Pizzaroni, a new Pizza venue has opened on Caracasbaaiweg, just after the roundabout, opposite of Bottles. with authentic italian pizzas and adventurous dishes such as the "Romeo and Juliet", a pizza with 24k gold sprinkles. It's take-out or dine-in.
- Where's the Shakers?, well that closed, but owner Olli came up with a likewise, even more bold (and bold) concept. Meet "Captains SportsBar & Grill", located at Parera, with the same full-bosomed person ☺ and a hangout to watch the games on big screen.
- Also recently opened restaurants are: Angus, O20, Meat the fish, Roast (new location) and Gondola (riffort). But more about these in another week. • This year we had to say goodbye to Royal Thai (sad), so after +20 years Curaçao is now without a dedicated Thai restaurant (sad). • Some things we wonder: Where is the new Shrimp Hut going to be located? • Did Vispiraat change its name? • Did we spot Wok & Talk Café, a new restaurant at Caracasbaaiweg, next to Heineken Sneek? More next week, PasaBon Weekend, Jan
